John Pryer received his musical education at Ely Cathedral, Clifton College, Bristol, and Keble College, Oxford. After teaching posts at Kingswood School, Bath and Repton School he became deputy to Roy Massey at Birmingham Cathedral. Subsequent appointments have been at St Chad's Cathedral, St Paul's in the Jewellery Quarter, and The Oratory, Birmingham. He is at present Organiste Titulaire at the Alexandra Palace, London.

Tom Winpenny is Assistant Master of the Music at St Albans Cathedral where his duties include accompanying the daily choral services and directing the acclaimed Abbey Girls Choir. Previously, he was Sub-Organist at St Paul's Cathedral. He has studied with Thomas Trotter and Johannes Geffert, and won First Prize and the Audience Prize at the 2008 Miami International Organ Competition. He is an organ tutor for the annual Eton Choral Courses.

Meirion Wynn Jones studied at the Royal Academy of Music and pursues a busy career as a freelance organist and composer, having worked at Westminster Abbey, Winchester Cathedral, Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral and the Birmingham Oratory. His music is published by Novello, SAIN and World Library Publications. www.meirionwynnjones.com

The organ of St Chad's Cathedral dates from 1993 and was built by J. W. Walker & Sons as part of the Cathedral's 150th anniversary restoration. There are 40 speaking stops.

Thursday Live was established in 2008 by Paul Carr at St Paul's in the Jewellery Quarter. The series transferred to St Chad's Cathedral in 2016.

St Chad's Cathedral was the first Catholic Cathedral erected in Great Britain following the Reformation of the 16th Century. Completed in 1841, it was designed by the great Gothic Revivalist Augustus Welby Pugin, who was also responsible for the Palaces of Westminster and the iconic clock tower of Big Ben. St Chad's celebrated its centenary in 1941 and was designated a minor basilica by Pope Pius XII.

By train: Birmingham Snow Hill. St Chad's is 5 minutes away via the St Chad's and St Paul's exit. Alternatively use the main entrance and follow the 'on foot' directions below.
